SUGA International Holdings Limited (“SUGA”/ “the Group”) (stock code: 912), a leading technology-based electronics total solutions provider, announced that its subsidiary Suga Macao Commercial Offshore Limited has received the “Best Supplier Award” from one of the Group’s key customers, Radio Systems® Corporation (“Radio Systems®”), for its superior products and services and excellent support.

SUGA has been a long-term business partner with Radio Systems® since 1994. The Group has been developing pet training products for Radio Systems® on an original design manufacturing (“ODM”) basis. Having closely collaborated with Radio Systems® for more than two decades, SUGA has a full understanding of the partner’s stringent requirements and takes pride in delivering quality products to its full satisfaction.

Dr. C. H. Ng, Chairman of SUGA, said, “We are delighted to stand out from other suppliers by earning this award. SUGA is dedicated to working hand-in-hand and growing together with our customers. Leveraging our solid foundation, and through our commitment to provide customers with the highest calibre niche products and comprehensive one-stop services, we are highly optimistic about gaining a greater volume of orders from our existing customers and extending our market reach to new customers worldwide. Looking ahead, we will bolster our collaboration with Radio Systems®, aiming at providing them with more tailor-made electronic solutions to enhance the functions of their pet-related products. We look forward to another decade of partnership.”
